

Consultant Offers MBA 101 Online

Laguna Beach resident Mitch Rosenberg, an organizational consultant, has launched a new Web site, Workplace Confidential (www.workplace-confidential.com), which claims to be a one-stop resource for business management issues.

Through his site, Rosenberg shares his expertise on leadership development, performance based compensation, board relationships and creating workplace culture to thrive in a difficult economic climate.

Rosenberg believes he combines an academic orientation with real-world perspective gained through street experience